

Academic

The academic district is located in the South-West of Moscow and consists of two metro stations - trade Union and Academic and its borders are next to the metro Leninsky Prospekt. Early travelers in the territory of the district there were four estates of which survived only Cheremushki-Znamenskoe. Today for the gala and adjusted columns are the Institute of theoretical and experimental physics and unconventional Museum gelmintologii. The area is known for well developed infrastructure there are over 20 educational institutions kindergartens, shops, pharmacies and clinics. On its territory there are almost no entertainment centers and hypermarkets, but the convenient location allows to reach by car or public transport to all major shopping centres within minutes. The Academic area of the district is quite green and beautiful concrete jungle diluted cosy squares slender alleyways and small parks. There are no apartment complexes but a lot of monolithic houses and Khrushchev. The action of the famous film Urban romance is just on a street in the Academic district. On the site of the former Cheremushkinskaya brick factory was opened the Museum of heroes of the Soviet Union and Russia where there are personal belongings and diaries given to relatives or colleagues. At the Museum is a cinema and lectures on historical themes. And on Vavilov street is the famous Darwin Museum telling about the richness of the natural world. The academic area is ideal for those who prefer a measured way of life but at the same time wants to be able at any time to go to the center or outside Moscow. District close to the third ring road and Lenin Avenue and its southern border runs through Lomonosovskiy Prospekt. Infrastructure advantageous location a good choice of quality housing and clean environment make this area attractive and popular. The perfect combination of price and quality The heart of the eternal students Inhale the aroma

Link to article:: Academic