She is very creative and interesting person. My kids are always enthusiastically waiting for sessions with her. We immediately see that its lessons are not in vain. Children develop fine motor skills sense of color and drawing technique. And fantasy to creativity she is simply inexhaustible. She uses various materials in his work ranging from monkey different grains of sand to toilet paper in addition to paint clay chalk and colored paper. I am very pleased to be working with her and safely recommend it to all parents. Special thanks to the Virtual Academy. My daughter asked me to teach her how to draw. I first tried to get her to art school. But then I realized that we were not included on the schedule and decided to start working with a tutor. We started with Elena Olegovna. I am very pleased to be working with this teacher. The lessons she pays much attention to such things as composition, working with color learning various techniques of working with paints. I and my daughter are very happy. Now Anya turns to Express their creative ideas on paper. Yana Igorevna - a very good and talented young tutor. She is always punctual and friendly. All of our arrangements for the classroom are clearly observed. The child from class in awe. I can already see my daughter noticeable results in development of creativity. Julia is not only cracoviae but also creates new images. I wish Joanna the best in her life and thank her for her work. I decided to take a tutor for learning drawing. First tried myself. However, as You know, the success was doubtful. Contacted the company Virtual Academy and told about their wishes. I recommend Darya Yu. Already in the first session I knew I made the right choice. With this teacher the impossible becomes possible. She gave me a hand showed the play of light and shadow told what is technology. With her I felt inspired. A big thank you to the tutor and the Virtual Academy for the care and training. Tutor Alexandra G. has done with our son drawing modeling and applications. The teacher also paid great attention to the overall development of the child. I and son were very pleased. Alexandra G. easily all told and showed. Vadik was very interesting. We are very pleased that appealed to the company Virtual Academy.
